INTRODUCTION

Story of Fishermen Conference

- Is it possible to talk about Christ-Centered Discipleship all year round without intentionally making disciples? Measurable?
- The practice of Christ-Centered Discipleship should be simple & transferable.
- There is always engagement on content, then teaching and learning moments.

DEMONSTRATION & PRACTICE

1. BEGINNING THE DISCIPLESHIP JOURNEY

Setting the First Discipleship Appointment

You: (Partner's Name eg Eric or Dora) You have a personal relationship with Christ. But this is only the beginning. We have met today. In this sense we have a friendship, but suppose that after today we never communicate with each other again. Will our friendship grow?

Partner: No

You: Why Not?

Partner: Because friendship depends on getting to know the other person and that takes constant communication.

You: Right, it's the same way with Christ. Even though you have a relationship with Him, if your friendship is going to grow, you need to learn how to know Him better. The better we know God, the more we will be able to trust Him. How do you think a friendship grows, (Partner's name)?

Partner: It grows by spending time together, talking with one another and doing things together.

You: That's right. In other words, we need to learn how to communicate with Christ and allow Him to communicate with us. We need to learn how to spend time with Him so our friendship will grow. (Partner's name), I would like to get together with you and share how you can build your friendship with Christ. Would you be interested?

Partner: Yes.

You: Can we meet here (or as appropriate) at 5 pm tomorrow God willing?

Partner: Yes.

You: That's great! Let's write that down. I really enjoyed talking to you today. See you tomorrow at 5 pm, God willing.
