

Spiritual Gift [Evaluation]

“Just as each of us has one body with many members, and these members do not all have the same function, so in Christ we who are many form one body, and each member belongs to all the others.

We have different gifts, according to the grace given us. If a man’s gift is prophesying, let him use it in proportion to his faith. If it is serving, let him serve; if it is teaching, let him teach; if it is encouraging, let him encourage; if it is contributing to the needs of others, let him give generously; if it is leadership, let him govern diligently; if it is showing mercy, let him do it cheerfully.” (Rom. 12:4-8)

“Now to each one the manifestation of the Spirit is given for the common good. To one there is given through the Spirit the message of wisdom, to another the message of knowledge by means of the same Spirit, to another faith by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healing by that one Spirit, to another miraculous powers, to another prophecy, to another distinguishing between spirits, to another speaking in different kinds of tongues, and to still another the interpretation of tongues. All these are the work of one and the same Spirit, and he gives them to each one, just as he determines.” (1 Cor. 12:7-11)

According to these passages God, by virtue of his indwelling Spirit, has given you a gift, or several, with which to minister to the body of Christ.

It is through ministry in the body of Christ that you will begin to recognize a special capacity, energy, or ability that you may have never realized you had. We underscore that it is through active service that one usually finds their gifting—the Holy Spirit empowers you as you are meeting real needs.

Additionally, through the unique way God made you and the circumstances he has brought you through, you also have “natural” talents and abilities that can be used to serve in ministry. These may be similar or synonymous with what your spiritual gifts are.

What follows is a very basic inventory of some of the spiritual gifts specifically mentioned in scripture. We really don’t know if the gifts mentioned in the Bible were meant to be a comprehensive list, meaning there may well be others, and certainly there are natural gifts and talents that do not fit into these categories.

Print out the questions and fill in the chart with your answers. This is not an exhaustive test by any means, but may begin to shed some light on how God wants to use you to minister within His body. Material compiled by J.D. Danielson, Lord of Life Lutheran church.
